Honoring excellence: AAHS President Emma Cinque and International Trustee Kevin Dunn Presents the International Six-Star Diamond Award to Brand Partner and Executive Chef Antonio Salvatore on behalf of Rampoldi New York

A NEW STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE IN MANHATTAN — On Thursday, June 11, 2026, The American Academy of Hospitality Sciences (AAHS) honored Rampoldi New York with the International Six-Star Diamond Award. This rare and prestigious accolade recognizes the establishment's exceptional commitment to service, gastronomy, and the elevated art of hospitality.

Since its debut in NYC, Rampoldi New York has masterfully translated the storied sophistication of its Monégasque heritage to the heart of Manhattan. Located near the iconic Lincoln Center, the restaurant offers an atmosphere of refined luxury that mirrors its Monte Carlo origins. The interior characterized by Baroque-style walls, Italian marble flooring, and bespoke Murano glass chandeliers provides a setting of unparalleled elegance that complements the culinary brilliance of Executive Chef and Partner Antonio Salvatore.

The Heart of the House! The dedicated team behind Rampoldi's Six-Star Award-winning Service and Culinary Artistry.
