

Around the Globe

In a ceremony at Lufthansa's acclaimed First Class Terminal at Frankfurt International Airport, Lufthansa received the coveted International Five Star Diamond Award. The Academy honored three outstanding accomplishments of Lufthansa's premium service portfolio: the Lufthansa First Class onboard its intercontinental fleet, the Lufthansa First Class Terminal in Frankfurt and the Lufthansa First Class Lounge at New York's JFK International Airport.

At Lufthansa's First Class Terminal in Frankfurt Jens Bischof receives the International Five Star Diamond Award

First Class Services

Lufthansa Receives the International Five Star Diamond Award

Dr. Reinhold Huber-Senior VP Product & Marketing at Lufthansa German Airlines, Joseph Cinque-AAHS President, Jens Bischof-CCO at Lufthansa German Airlines, Karen Lynn Dixon-AAHS International General Manager

Actor Ben Cross also travels in style aboard Lufthansa's First Class cabin and shares his enthusiasm for the Five Star Diamond recognition

Margaret Eaton (left), and Nils Haupt (right) receive the Five Star Diamond award for the Lufthansa First Class Lounge in JFK Airport in New York

We are very excited to receive this award from the Academy which has evolved into an international powerhouse network that values the very highest quality and hospitality.

Jens Bischof, CCO
at Lufthansa German Airlines

Around the Globe

Lufthansa Munich receives International Five Star Diamond Award

Klaus Berger (left), Director Passenger Support Services, with Oliver Barthelmeh (right), Managing Director LSG Sky Chefs Munich accepting the award

Lufthansa's First Class Lounge at Munich Airport has received the coveted International Five Star Diamond Award from the American Academy of Hospitality Sciences (AAHS) in recognition of the outstanding quality offered to lounge customers by the airline. "The Munich lounge now ranks among the finest First Class Lounges worldwide," the jury said, explaining its decision. Munich is the third Lufthansa First Class Lounge after Frankfurt and New York to win this top award. The AAHS is the only organization to bestow five-star awards in the global travel and luxury segment.

It recognizes the success of our efforts to give our guests a unique sense of well-being and to make their stay in our First Class Lounge a memorable experience

Klaus Berger,
Director Passenger Support Services

