

WINTER OF 2024 TOYS FOR TOTS

Charity Work For "Toys For Tots" Winter of 2024

Toys for Tots 2024 Event at Angelina Bakery Times Square

Toys for Tots 2024 Event in Chinatown, NYC

For the last 25 years AAHS Chairman, CEO Joseph Cinque, has made the annual Toys for Tots charitable toy drive a successful extraordinary tradition and act of compassion by joining together with US Marine Corps Officers along with other generous organizations and officials who join forces coming together to contribute to uplifting the spirits of less fortunate children and their families in need of some cheer during the holiday season.

A special thank you from Joseph Cinque along with the AAHS team recognizing all the amazing individuals who orchestrate and assist in making this event possible and such a huge charitable success. Emmy Award-Winning Journalist TV & Radio Host Rita Cosby, Tomaczek Bednarek, Tony Park-Angelina Bakery, David A. Schutzenhofer General Manager & Managing Director Trump National Golf Club Bedminster present with daughter Grace Schutzenhofer, Robin Miu CEO Sing Tao Newspapers, Entrepreneur Gary Kong, US Marine Corps, NYPD and FDNY. It's our distinct honor helping the less fortunate during the holiday season. This annual charity event gives hope to boys, girls and their families in the form of toys and winter apparel. It's a heartwarming privilege to create beautiful smiles during this time of year.

As they say "It takes a village" made up of compassionate caring individuals who we couldn't do without. A big Thank you to residents in Long Island, Queens & New York City for coming out every year with your generous donations during the holiday season.

Looking forward continuing to spread holiday cheer and grins from ear to ear, year after year.
